COCKTAILS

Inspired by the seven Central American countries, these drinks are a celebration of our vibrant cultures and traditions. Each one tells a story through its ingredients and inspiration.

MACUÁ – NICARAGUA 67

Born from a nationwide cocktail competition, the Macuá is Nicaragua's national drink. Our version blends clarified white rum, fresh pink and white guava, orange juice, and a hint of ginger for a modern twist.

*NON-ALCOHOLIC VERSION 47

RASPAO – PANAMÁ 67

A playful homage to Panama's street-side shaved ice treat, this cocktail layers vodka, lime, and vibrant fruit syrups over crushed ice for a refreshing and interactive experience.

*NON-ALCOHOLIC VERSION 47

BELICE SPRITZ – BELICE 72

Drawing inspiration from Belize's famous rum punch, this spritz mixes coconut, Palo Santo, corn, pineapple, and prosecco, topped with a creamy ricotta foam for a tropical delight.

*NON-ALCOHOLIC VERSION 47

FLOR DE JAMAICA – GUATEMALA 67

Rosa de Jamaica, Guatemala's popular hibiscus drink, this tequila sour combines hibiscus, tamarind & pineapple, reflecting the region's tart and tropical flavors.

*NON-ALCOHOLIC VERSION 47

LA RUTA – HONDURAS 75

Inspired by La Ruta Lenca, a journey through Hondura's cultural heritage, this mezcal negroni blends raicilla, vermouth, Italian bitter and tropical fruits.

CACAO Y CAFÉ – EL SALVADOR 69

Coffee and cacao, two icons of Salvadoran identity, come together in this cocktail. Coffee-infused rum, spiced cacao syrup, and espresso highlight their cultural and historical significance.

MAÍZ Y PLÁTANO – COSTA RICA 72

Plantains and corn, staples of Costa Rican cuisine, come together in this Bourbon cocktail, offering nostalgic and comforting flavors in every sip.
